The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In	the	Year	Two	Thousand	and	Nine

An Act Establishing a Sick Leave Bank for JOHN K. RYAN, an Employee of the Office of the Inspector General.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Whereas, The deferred operation of this act would tend to defeat its purpose, which is to establish immediately a sick leave bank for a certain employee of the office of the inspector general, therefore it is hereby declared to be an emergency law, necessary for the immediate preservation of the public convenience.

- Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same as follows:
  - Notwithstanding any general or special law, rule or regulation to the contrary, the office of the inspector general shall establish a sick leave bank for John K. Ryan, an employee of the office. Any employee of the office may voluntarily contribute 1 or more sick, personal or vacation days to the sick leave bank for use by John K. Ryan. Sick leave bank days shall not be used for absences unrelated to the illness or disability that necessitated the establishment of the sick leave bank as determined by the office. Whenever John K. Ryan terminates employment with the office or requests to dissolve the sick leave bank, any remaining time in the sick leave bank shall be transferred to the extended illness leave bank.
